HIS TEETH TO BE BURIED WITH HIM.-Probably the oldest man in Madison county lives in the Big Hill neighborhood. He does not know his exact age, but from the recollections of old residents in that neighborhood he is not far from 120 years old. He is a white man, but one-quarter Cherokee Indian, and of the Indian blood he is as proud as if he were the owner of broad blue-grass acres. His name is Jehu Vaughn, father of William Vaugh, the Madison county skeleton, who was with Barnum for years. Mr. Vaughn hasn't a tooth in his head but never suffered one pang of toothache. He saved all his teeth and guards them with as jealous care as does the miser his gold, and wants them buried with him.-Richmond Pantagraph.

JOVE AND HORNET STRIKE TO-GETHER.-There was an unusually sharp flash of lightning, a stunning peal of thunder and a sharp, sudden pain, and a west Gouldsboro young lady gave a sudden shriek and jumped into the middle of the floor. Her friencs thought she had been struck and she thought she had been killed; but when the excitement had calmed down enough to make an investigation, everybody was relieved, for then it was found that the shock had been inflicted, not by the lightning, but by a hornet, which had chosen that innuspicious time for action. - Lewiston Evening
